POET

Jerome Coetzee is a writer, poet, researcher and Artistic Director of the Centre of Excellence in Bishop Lavis. His research explores Afrofuturism in contemporary Afrikaans literature, blending creativity with critical inquiry.

Coetzee's works have been published in LitNet and The Wee Sparrow Poetry Press (2022). He is the winner of the National Poetry Prize (2021) and was longlisted for the Sol Plaatje European Union Award (2022).

Expanding his craft across various mediums, Jerome co-wrote the play A Pot of Pap at the End of the Rainbow Nation (2024) and contributed to the documentary Cooking up Feminism (2025) for Food Agency Cape Town.

He performs at poetry sessions, festivals, corporate and social events while also facilitating workshops on creative writing, artistic expression, and collaboration with a particular interest in interdisciplinary collaborations within university science departments.
