
Martin PRETORIUS

POET

Martin Rodney Pretorius is a poet from Kraaifontein whose writing journey began eight years ago.

His work captures everyday life, freedom, and the struggles and triumphs of young people from pre and post democracy, drawing inspiration from global events and experiences. Pretorius is known for hosting online poetry slams on social media platforms and has also competed in national platforms such as the AVBOB Poetry Competition.

He regularly performs at cultural and community events, including the Castle of Good Hope's Heritage Day program, Women's Day celebrations, school and church gatherings. Beyond performance, Martin is passionate about nurturing young voices through workshops, teaching learners how to turn their thoughts into poems and stories that spark real change.
